REEK SUNDAY PILGRIMAGE:

This year Reek Sunday falls on 28 July. Pope Francis has designated 2024 as a Year of Prayer, and this year's pilgrimage theme is: 'To pray for and honour World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly' which also occurs on the same weekend.

"I am delighted that the three-and-a-half year undertaking to restore the Pilgrims' Path on Croagh Patrick has now been completed. Accordingly, and on behalf of the Croagh Patrick Stakeholders' Group, I welcome everyone to our annual Reek Sunday weekend pilgrimage that will start on Garland Friday, 26 July. The Stakeholders' Group has been responsible for monumental work in preserving and safeguarding the mountain. As it is the largest annual gathering on the Reek, it is essential that Reek Sunday pilgrims - and indeed all pilgrims - play their part in respecting the mountain. In this context I am highlighting that we all have a responsibility to share in the protection of the mountain's fragile ecosystem, and I encourage all climbers to stay on the Pilgrim's Path. This request is made in the interest of the safety of climbers themselves, to preserve the mountain's habitat, and to sustain this special pilgrimage for future generations."

Safety advice for pilgrims

Croagh Patrick is a physically demanding pilgrimage. Intending pilgrims should make themselves aware in advance of health and safety information about the mountain.

Pilgrims should also heed the instructions of stewards, the mountain rescue teams, Order of Malta, and Gardaí. While it is a custom for some to make the climb barefoot, pilgrims should come prepared for changeable weather conditions, and are advised to bring suitable warm/waterproof clothing, good footwear, walking stick/staff and water, and to be mindful of the safety of themselves and others.
